Hello attorney Richards this is Kristen again with Gentlemens quality home improvement I'm just writing in regards to Michael Fraley and his court date that was to be yesterday. I just wanted to know what was going on with his release if he was going to be able to be released per work release. He is needed due to increasingly high demand in our workforce. We are very busy to say the least, and he is One of our more experienced and reliable skilled workers. If You can please either email me back or call me at the number previously given to you too just let me know how things are going with his release. If anything else is needed please let me know if any other information is needed. Thank you for your time and I hope to be hearing back from you soon.

Sincerely,

K. Coleman
